MESSAGE

Dear Sir/Madam,

I have been informed by Primary Examiner Poinvil, and by the Group 3628 Supervisory Examiner, that allowance papers in this case were mailed to me last week, on Thursday June 23.

Unfortunately it has now been determined that my local post office mis-delivered all of the first class mail received for our post office box this last Monday and/or Tuesday, including the papers sent to us by Examiner Poinvil, and these mailings have apparently been lost, at least for now.

Accordingly, I would like to request that a copy of the papers mailed to me on Thursday June 23 be faxed to our office, preferably to fax No. 781.240.0350. (We have another fax number, which I sent in a fax to Examiner Poinvil yesterday, which is 781.721.9597, but would prefer use of the 240.0350 number).

If this request cannot be accommodated, or should be made in a different way, I would be very grateful if I could be informed by telephone, to 781.721.6800

Thank you very much for your consideration,

Sincerely,

Sincerely yours,

Philip Koenig
